OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY COMMISSIONER,
WOKHA, NAGALAND.

NO. JUDL-13/DR/2008-09
Dated, Wokha, the 16th Nov'2010.

ORDER

Whereas it has been brought to the notice of the District Administration Wokha, that there are huge number of Endangered, Migratory Birds ( Amur Falcon) recently migrated to DHEP and its catchments areas. These migratory birds come to these areas for a short period of time and go.

It is also brought to the knowledge of the District Administration that those migratory birds are being caught alive indiscriminately and started selling on large scale by the resident/ public of the areas in the open market which is in contravention to Schedule IV of the wildlife (Protection) Act 1972.

Now, therefore, after careful consideration of all aspect, it is hereby strictly ordered that catching and trapping of those migratory birds at DHEP and all its catchments areas is strictly prohibited with immediate effect. In case of making default there- in, the violator(s) is liable to be prosecuted as per the provision of the law.
